Rubio: Vatican could host Russia-Ukraine talks

US Secretary of State Marco Rubio on Saturday said the Vatican could be a venue for Russia-Ukraine peace talks, taking up the Holy See's offer after Pope Leo XIV vowed to make 'every effort' to help end the war. Speaking to reporters in Rome before meeting Cardinal Matteo Zuppi, the Vatican point man on Ukraine, Rubio said that he would be discussing potential ways the Vatican could help, 'the status of the talks, the updates after yesterday (Friday) and the path forward.'
